Missouri State University

Magers Health and Wellness Center

Bill and Lucielle Magers Family Health and Wellness Center is Missouri State University's medical treatment facility. Magers is located on the Missouri State Campus just north of the University Bookstore.

Magers provides medical and pharmacy services to all members of the university community aged 6 years and older including students, faculty and staff. Services include primary care visits, mental health specialists, vaccinations and more.

Students and employees in good credit standing may defer their Medical and Pharmacy charges to their MSU accounts."Magers is a wonderful resource right here in our community," said Taylor Smith, student employee.

"I get my asthma medication prescriptions filled at the Magers pharmacy and it costs less than half of what I would usually pay," said Lauren Dell. "If I'm ever sick I know I will always get an appointment the same day or next, too."

Patient Testimonials

- ❖ “They always listen to what my symptoms are and understand my background with asthma and how that affects my health. I am able to get my meds and inhalers there far cheaper than anywhere else.”

-Lauren D, Fashion Merchandising Student

- ❖ “I like how I can get a free flu shot at Magers. My mom works at a hospital so it’s important to me to get the vaccination.”

- Kevin F, Business Student

- ❖ “Every time I go to Magers I have the option of deferring my payments to my student account and that’s important to a broke college student like myself!”

-Abby M, Criminology Student
